

Gender, Fashion & the Media

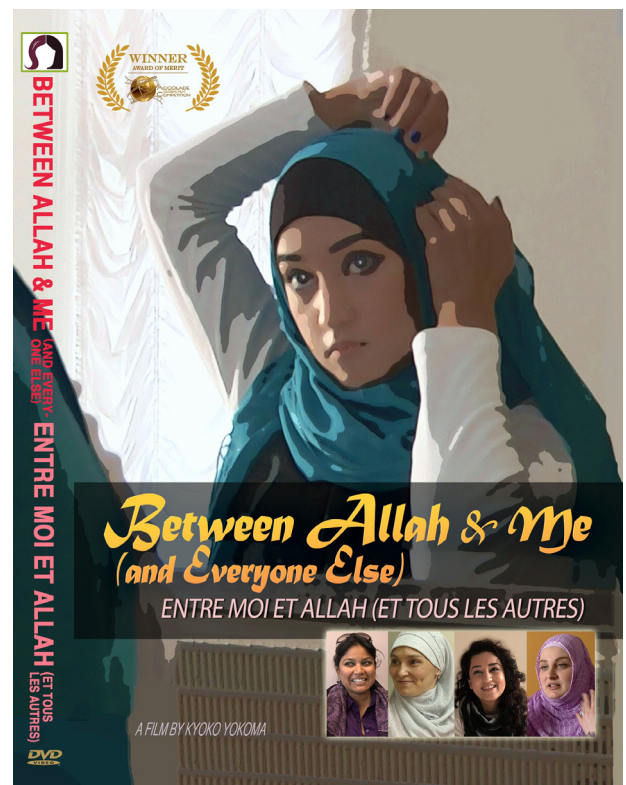

Fall 2017 Colloquia

Women's and Gender Studies &
Department of Textiles, Merchandising & Fashion Design

Film Screening and Facilitated Discussion Between Allah and Me (And Everyone Else) (2015) dir. Kyoko Yokoma

BETWEEN ALLAH & ME (AND EVERYONE ELSE) explores four Muslim women's challenges as they choose to wear -or not wear- a headscarf (the hijab). The story of each woman, as she interacts with different members of her family and the community, reveals the diversity of Muslim experiences and viewpoints regarding the hijab. The film conveys how the hijab carries many different meanings and demonstrates the complex effects of the hijab on Muslim women, their families and communities, and raises questions about the present and future of multicultural societies in North America.

With Professors Loukia Sarroub,
Abla Hasan, Claire Nicholas, &
Phd Candidate Samirah Alotaibi

Mary Riepma Ross Theatre
Monday, September 18th,
6-8pm

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Co-Sponsored by the University Research Council, Humanities Nebraska and the Departments of Communication Studies, English, History, Modern Languages & Literatures, and Philosophy

UNIVERSITY OF Nebraska
Lincoln

HUMANITIES NEBRASKA

For more information, contact Women's and Gender Studies:(402) 472-9392 • 327 Seaton Hall • <http://www.unl.edu/wgs>
The University of Nebraska–Lincoln does not discriminate based on gender, age, disability, race, color, religion, marital status, veteran's status, national or ethnic origin, or sexual orientation.